I don't know if we could tell you without telling all OEMs even if we knew the exact date.

Not in time for this test, I am sure - but coming soon! I just asked the very same question of someone else.

Hi Joel:

Since the question of the roadspeed fan has been raised, enquiring minds want to know, "Do you have an idea of when your SC03 chamber will be ready for prime time?"

Hi Joel:

We expect to submit a waiver for our 3.0L diesel Grand Cherokee, next week. Given that we have used a roadspeed fan to test the vehicle. Can you tell me how you plan to test it?

Thanks,

Morrie Lee
